What adults told us is important to them

* Good planning.

* Building relationships.

* We keep the person at the centre of everything we do.

* We work together positively

* We listen to, and learn from, individual's stories

* We provide time for learning and sharing good practice

Make sure staff have protected time to plan with people and build positive relationships

Ensure the person's voice is at the centre of discussions

Support the sharing of good practice within and across agencies and teams

Use empowering and strengths-based practice with staff as well as people

What we do well in North Lincolnshire

How can we continue to build on this good practice?
