

Agency Fraud and Cybercrime Awareness Training

The North Lincolnshire Safeguarding Adults Board are partnering up with the Voluntary Action North Lincolnshire (VANL) and the FraudWatch project to deliver a number of face - to - face and online fraud and cybercrime awareness training sessions.

Aim:

The aim of the training is for attendees to develop an understanding of the consequences of fraud and cybercrime. The objectives of the training are to identify the types of fraud and cybercrime and identify the signs of fraud and cybercrime victims.

Training Sessions:

Delivered face - to - face and via MS Teams.

Face - to - face sessions will last for 1 hour and will outline the subject areas in more detail.

Online sessions will last 30 minutes and provide a brief overview of the subject areas.

Who should attend:

The multi - agency training sessions, have spaces for face - to - face limited to 15 delegates per session (multiple bookings from the same teams / agencies will not be accepted).

Training resources will be shared with all participants for wider dissemination among their teams / organisations.

There will be an option to arrange further training sessions for teams separately, should there be a demand.

Please contact SafeguardingAdultsBoard@northlincs.gov.uk or Martyna.Kluska@northlincs.gov.uk
